Appendix 1 - Data breach policy

Any and data breaches of the General Data Protection or Data Protection Act, including a breach of any of the data protection principles will be reported to the Clerk as soon as it is discovered. Once notified, the Clerk shall assess:

- The extent of the breach;
- The risks to the data subjects as a consequence of the breach;
- Any security measures in place that will protect the information;
- Any measures that can be taken immediately to mitigate the risk to the individuals.

Unless the Clerk concludes that there is unlikely to be any risk to individuals from the breach, said breach will be reported to the Information Commissioner's Office within 72 hours of the breach having come to the attention of the Parish Council. The Clerk will take advice from the Information Commissioner's Office when making this conclusion.

The report made to the Information Commissioners Office will include details of the breach which will include:

- The volume of data at risk;
- The number of data subject affected;
- The categories of data covered by the breach
- The contact person for any enquiries;
- The likely consequences of the breach;
- Any measures, either proposed or already taken, to address the breach;

If the breach is likely to result in a high risk to the affected individuals, the Clerk will inform the data subject(s) of the breach without undue delay.

Data subjects shall be told:

- The nature of the breach;
- Who to contact with any questions;
- The measures taken to mitigate any risks;

The Clerk shall then be responsible for instigating an investigation into the breach, including how it happened, and whether it could have been prevented. Any recommendations for further training or a change in procedure shall be reviewed by Parish Council and a decision made about implementation of those recommendations.
